

ABIJITH S PILLAI

Back-End Developer
Software Engineer
Aspiring Developer

PROFILE

I'm a passionate computer science student who enjoys building reliable and scalable back-end systems. I have a strong interest in server-side logic, database management, and API development, and I'm eager to apply what I've learned in a real-world internship. I'm a quick learner who values writing clean, efficient, and easy-to-understand code.
